The Name Game

by Jessie Lou Libby-Ecleo

I have a game that I want to play.
It sure will give everyone a great day.
But who, oh who, shall play with me,
And guess the names for you and me?

Hey, you! Who, us?
Yes, you! Let's play a game.
What? What is it?
What? We love a game.
Let's play your game.

It's called "The Name Game."
We ask some questions and you give a name.
Are you game? Yes, we are.
Are you game? Yes, we are.
We are game!

Here goes...

What T is it in a pot that's green and calms?
I know that! We know that!
It's tea! It's tea! It's tea!
It's tea, isn't it? Yes, it is!
Tea, it is! Tea, it is!

What H is it that you wear on your head?
I know that! We know that!
A hat! A hat! A hat!
It's hat, isn't it? Yes, it is!
Hat, it is! Hat, it is!

What E is it that flies and soars?
I know that! We know that!
An eagle! An eagle! An eagle!
It's eagle, isn't it? Yes, it is!
Eagle, it is! Eagle, it is!

Are you having fun with this game we're playing?
Yes, we are! Yes, yes, we are!
You are quite good, that's what I'm saying.
Would you like to continue and guess a few?
Yes, we do! We'd like to continue.

Here goes...

It's the N in name that rhymes with rubber.
We count from zero that leads to forever.
It tells us how much, and gives us the time.
Sometimes it doesn't really cost a dime.

Do you know what it is?
I think I do...I think we do.

There's N in number and it rhymes with rubber.
Zero starts infinity – that's forever.
Number shows how much, and tells us the time.
And yes, sometimes they don't cost a dime.

It's number. It's number.
It's number, is it not?
It's number. It must be number.
Yes, it's number.
Yes, yes, it's number.

It's the A in amazing that's sweet and staple.
Go ahead, have one or have a couple.
It comes in green and especially in red.
Their delicious crunch is in my head.

Do you know what it is?
I think I do...I think we do.

There's A in apple that's sweet and staple.
We'd love to have one or have a couple.
They're colourful in green and red.
Oh, yes, their crunch is in my head.

It's apple. It's apple.
It's apple, is it not?
It's apple. It must be apple.
Yes, it's apple.
Yes, yes, it's apple.

It's the M in money and it makes harmony.
One can't help but hum its melody.
They come in jazz, rap or pop.
I bet you'd start and will not stop.

Do you know what it is?
I think I do...I think we do.

There's M in music that's filled with harmony.
People do sing with its melody.
They also come in blues and hiphop.
You, too, will start and will not stop.

It's music. It's music.
It's music, is it not?
It's music. It must be music.
Yes, it's music.
Yes, yes, it's music.

There's E in egg but this one's huge.
It's gray and stocky, you can't hide its bulge.
The tusks are white, sturdy and sharp;
Its nose is long, flexible, and strong.

Do you know what it is?
I think I do...I think we do.

There's E in elephant and this one's huge.
Gray and stocky, it's bulge is rocky.
Add its ears so wide and flappy,
How majestic, it is gigantic!

It's elephant. It's elephant.
It's elephant, is it not?

It's elephant. It must be elephant.
Yes, it's elephant.
Yes, yes, it's elephant.

This game is fun, do you agree?
I agree; this game is fun.
Let's have one more?
Just one more?
Sure, let's have one more.

This G you see is found everywhere.
It's green and grows here and there.
Lie on it; it's soothing and relaxing,
It's ok, it's soft for rolling.

Think now, do you know what it is?
I believe, I do... We believe we do.

Grass is found everywhere,
Shades of green, it grows here and there.
I can lie on it all day,
Soothed and relaxed all the way.

You're so smart,
You're so quick.
It is grass, grass indeed.

This A you see flies high up in the sky.
It doesn't flap its wings, but it takes you to places.
You'll get where you want to be by and by,
For a moment, for a while, get to meet different faces.

Think now, do you know what it is?
I believe, I do... We believe we do.

An airplane soars high up in the sky.
It's wings do not move, but we get to places.
Safe and sound, we say goodbye,
To the people we met of different races.

You're so smart,
You're so quick.
It is an airplane, an airplane indeed.

This M you taste is fresh and yummy.
You ask for more because it's tasty.
Trickles through your throat, it is so silky.
My, oh my, it makes you wise and healthy.

Think now, do you know what it is?
I believe, I do... We believe we do.

Milk is fresh and yummy, no doubt.
When there's no more then we pout.
We want some more, more and more,
A healthy mind and body is what we ask for.

You're so smart,
You're so quick.
It is milk, milk indeed.

This E you live in is one of a kind.
It's blue and green; it's full of life.
The trees, the valleys, the seas, the skies,
He above created to everyone alive.

Think now, do you know what it is?
I believe, I do... We believe we do.

Earth is none like any other planet.
There's you and us and others, I bet.
Creations surrounding us are all so beautiful.
And for that, to Him, we all are grateful.

You're so smart,
You're so quick.
It is earth, earth indeed.

Now, our game is about to end.
There's one more thing I ask of you to send.

Recall the letters we gave a name;
What is it, can you tell me the same?

It started with a T, then an H, then an E,
Followed by an N, then an A, M, and E,
Finally ending with four more letters,
There is G, and A, M, and E.

What? What is it?
Oh, it's the game!
It's the game that we played.
It's the game... The Name Game.

Jazz Chants Piece HIGH SCHOOL

A Little Beat of Everything

By Gracia Rodel B. Deloria

Teachers may opt for a good entrance with clapping and chanting using the first stanza.

Repetition of lines or stanzas may be allowed but not adding of lines nor stanzas.

Clapping with choreography may be inserted at the teacher's choice.

Rhythm and walkin' and beat
Rhythm and walkin' and beat
Rhythm and walkin', rhythm and walkin'
Rhythm and walkin' and beat

1...2...3...4!

SOLO: What is that I'm hearing?

Is that your beat? Is that your beat?
It's on the heat, get on your feet!
Your beat, your beat is on the heat,
Ready your feet, beat the heat!

SOLO: Say hello to this great new day!

It's another day, we all say hey!
All say hey, for this great day.
Another day, brand new way
Brand new way to love the day!

SOLO: Do you hear it?

Do you hear the sound?
The beat is all around.
The beat is all around,
C'mon and let it sound!

SOLO: In 5, 4, 3, 2, 1!

Walkin' in the rhythm to the beat,
Walkin' in the rhythm down the street,
Walkin' and singin' just chantin' and jammin'
Dancin' and hoppin' while buzzin' and yellin'

The beat is all around, do you hear the sound?
Do you hear the sound of the beats around?
Rounding, rounding, sounding, sounding
Beating, chanting all surrounding!

A little beat of everything is all you've got
Whether short or long, whether loud or not
You better feel the beat when you're feeling hot
Give it all, give it all, give it all your best shot!

SOLO: C'mon!

What do you have? Beats I do have.
Beats I do have, I really have!
I really have, what do you have?
Beats I do have, yes you too have!

SOLO: Bring it on! One...

I got this beat in my pocket
One leaping beat like a rocket

Sounding like a growl
Of a fox with a haul.

SOLO: Two...

I got another beat in my pocket
Two tipping beats in a bucket

Sounding like a cling
Of bells in endless ring.

SOLO: Three...

Here's another beat in my pocket
Three humming beats from a socket

Three grumbling hum
To chase away the humdrum.

SOLO: Four...

The next beat from my pocket
Four clanging beats of the lockets

Four beats of a drum
Just enough to wake up Mom!

SOLO: Five...

Oh the fifth beat from my pocket

Nothing but chirps from a cricket

Shhhhhh... the world is in silence, it's the chance for the silents.

SOLO: Six...

The sixth beat just got out from my pocket
The noisy troubling sound of the market

(Participants will sound off noisily and disorderly)

This place, oh not just smelly
but really very topsy-turvy!

The beat is all around, do you hear the sound?
Do you hear the sound of the beats around?
Rounding, rounding, sounding, sounding
Beating, chanting all surrounding!

SOLO: This one's amazing!

Do you know of a beat, a worthy kind of beat?
Yes I know how to fit my feet on that beat!
It's a beat that knits all humans in a rit.
Come let's repeat and grab a grand feat!

The beat of peace, is the first in the list!
One in peace, nobody should be missed.
Against what's least, stand with a fist
Die for peace, peace in a fist!

Beat of love, we all must have.
It's the kind of love from heavens above.
Love for poor you've gotta give 'em more
It's love for the poor you should make so sure.

Happy beat is next we need
It's the beat that we all should heed
Let the joyous beat take all the lead
Words of glee let us dare to read.

The beat is all around, do you hear the sound?
Do you hear the sound of the beats around?
Rounding, rounding, sounding, sounding
Beating, chanting all surrounding!

SOLO: Let's wrap it up!

What do you have for your feet? A beat.
What do you have in your ear? A beat.
What do you have on your head? A beat.
What do you have on your heart? A beat.
No matter what, it's your beat that counts.
No matter when, let those beats resound.
No matter where, let it all be found.
Your beat, your beat it truly counts!

SOLO: Because...

A little beat of everything is all you've got
Whether short or long, whether loud or not
You better feel the beat when you're feeling hot
Give it all, give it all, give it all your best shot!

SOLO: And finally...

Even if your feet are numb
Always be prepared to run
Getting stuck is isn't fun
Always say you are the one!
We're done.
Yeah!
