Dear Sir:

Greetings from GWAVE!

In an effort to reach out to male respondents of our Domestic Violence clients, GWAVE has trained a group of men on Life Coaching and Responsive Listening. As a result of said series of trainings, a volunteer group of men, from the academe, community and church, called LAKBANA (Lalaking Nagpakabana) was organized -- their aim is to make themselves available to listen to and interact with male respondents of economic abuse complaints reported to GWAVE. Since the pilot of the said project, there were already a number of men who were able to conduct responsive listening sessions and with this, there is now a need for the sharing of their experience as life coach and the assessment of the strategies implemented for said sessions.

In view of this, we would like to invite, Mr. Reynald Dote, one of your Program Development Officers, to attend the Echo and Assessment of the LAKBANA Responsive Listening Sessions on March 22, 2017 from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm at the Little Children of the Philippines (LCP), Daro, Dumaguete City. As one of our trained Responsive Listeners, Mr. Dote's inputs will prove beneficial to the activity.

We hope for your positive response regarding this request. Thank you and we are looking forward to our continued partnership in ending gender based violence.

Respectfully yours,

KATHELEEN CELIZ DEL SOCORRO, LLB
Advocacy Officer, GWAVE
