OIC, Regional Director
Department of Education (DepEd)
Negros Island Region

Dear Dr. Sadsad:

The Philippine Librarians Association, Inc. - Negros Island Region Librarians Council (NIRLC) in partnership with the Negros Occidental Librarians Association (NOCLA), will hold a Seminar on "Information Literacy Program in the Research Milieu" on June 29- 30, 2017 at MM Auditorium B, University of St. La Salle, Bacolod City..

This two-day seminar specifically aims to:

1. Use their information literacy competencies and skills in writing research reports and publishable papers.
2. Understand ethical and legal issues such as copyright and plagiarism in writing a research paper.
3. Update librarians on the implementing rules and regulations of the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Act of 2016.

Librarians, teacher-librarians, LIS students and other information professionals from private and public schools/institutions are the expected participants. Our resource speaker is Prof. Lourdes David (Board for Librarians). The registration fee is One Thousand pesos (P1,000.00) per participant inclusive of meals (lunch and AM/PM snacks), certificate and seminar kit.

In this connection, may I request your endorsement to the public school/colleges librarians regarding this activity.

For inquiries, you may contact:

- Elisa Vinco Garcia
President, NIRLC, NOCLA

I am very grateful for your positive response regarding this matter.

Very truly yours,

ELISA V. GARCIA
PLAI-NIRLC, NOCLA President
