RECORDED

Dear Sir/Madam:

As we prepare to celebrate Children's Month, Paglaum Shows & Events in cooperation with Regis Films and Entertainment present for special screenings an inspiring film that revolves around three kids that while searching for their ducks they come in contact with troubled adults who behave worse children. In the end, the oft forgotten values of OPTIMISM, GRATITUDE, and INNER RENEWAL will come to the fore.

"TATLONG BIBE" – Tells the story of three friends bound by a common tie – love for family. It is a tale that makes us realize that the mundane things out there should be savored and be thankful for. Oftentimes, when new pray, we ask to achieve things and when everything is okay, we tend to forget the one up there. MIRACLES happen every day, it's just that we tend to overlook it because we get so caught up in our mistakes and our failures.

The film objectives are the following:

1. emphasize the importance of love for family-it's a testament that no family is ever perfect but despite it we strive to make things better;
2. present a wholesome, family-oriented entertainment that will truly inspire, inspire and inspire students
3. to make the students, teachers and parents FEEL GOOD and be THANKFUL about life.
4. appreciate the little MIRACLES despite all the negativity happening in our world.
5. educate the Filipino youth to contribute to a better Philippines.

Love for Family Outshines Everything in "Tatlong Bibe"

Regis Films with its latest offering Tatlong Bibe tells the story of three friends bound by a common tie --- love for family. Raikko Mateo, Marco Masa and Lyca Gairanod topbill this Pinoy film that will certainly touch hearts of Pinoy families out there.

Tatlong Bibe is a tale that makes us realize that the mundane things out there should be savored and be thankful for. Oftentimes, when we pray, we ask to achieve things and when everything is okay, we tend to forget the one up there. Miracles happen every day, it's just that we tend to overlook it because we get so caught up in our mistakes and our failures. Angel Aquino plays the role of Marko's mom, Lyca is a kid who disliked by her father and Raikko Mateo is a close friend of the two.

Featuring three stories weaved into one, Tatlong Bibe centers on love for family – it's a testament that no family is ever perfect but despite it we strive to make things better. With a superb cast that includes veteran actor Eddie Garcia, Mommy Dionisia Pacquiao, Luis Alandy, Rita Avila, Sharlene San Pedro and JK Labajo amongst others, this film will leave audiences feeling good and thatnkful about life. We sometimes tend to neglect little miracles bacuase of all the negativity happening in our world.

'Tatlong Bibe' a wholesome old-fashioned tearjerker from fledgling producer

In an era when local film fare consists of gritty indie fare, romantic comedies, and Hollywood imports, wholesome, family-oriented entertainment will always have a place reserved for it, especially when the movie stars popular and talented child actors.

Go over local film history and it will be revealed that the industry has seen through the decades how modestly-budgeted movies like "Mga Basang Sisiw" and "Mga Batang Yagit," to name two, turned out to be sleeper hits.

Going farther back, one can cite how "Roberta" in 1951 starring super screen tot Tessie Agana made mothers and their kids cry buckets, making the film such a huge hit that it saved Sampaguita Pictures from bankruptcy.

Regis Films and Entertainment, Inc. intends to revive that trend with its maiden offering called "Tatlong Bibe." Make no mistake about it. "Tatlong Bibe" may bear the catchy title of a novelty song that went viral a few seasons back, but the Joven Tan-directed movie does not feature anything whimsical like children growing wings like real ducks.

"Tatlong Bibe," says its director, is a tearjerker that revolves around three kids played by child actors Raikko Matteo, Lyca Gairanod, and Marco Masa. Their paths cross while searching for three ducks and they come in contact with troubled adults who behave worse than little children. In the end, the oft-forgotten values of optimism, gratitude, and inner renewal will come to the fore.

The need to go back to basics is not lost on Regis Films producer Anicia Joson-Regis.

"Our battlecry is inspire, inspire, inspire," says the petite and effervescent woman. Regis is a mother and grandmother not only to her biological offspring and "apos" but even to the thousands she has helped find greener pasture through her overseas recruitment company.

But that world is so different from moviemaking. With "Tatlong Bibe," Regis had her baptism of fire as a producer and it made her appreciate the kind of devotion and commitment film workers invest in their jobs.

"Once I visited the set and 'yung location was far from comfortable and duon ko naisip na hindi pala ganuon kadali gumawa ng pelikula talaga."

The three child actors are just too happy to be working with each other. Raikko and Marco played the title role in past ABS-CBN series "Honesto" and "Nathaniel" respectively, while Lyca was the first grand winner of "The Voice Kids Philippines."

"Ang gusto lang po namin ay makagawa kami ng palabas na makakaantig po sa mga taong manonood nito," says Marco. Lending support to the three charming child performers are a mix of industry newbies and veterans like Angel Aquino, Eddie Garcia, Dionesia Pacquiao, Dianne Medina, Rita Avila, Sharlene San Pedro, Victor Neri, Luis Alandy, Edgar Allan Guzman, Ronnie Lazaro, Anita Linda, JK Labajo, Perla Bautista, Nikki Valdez, Lou Veloso, Janna Trias and Ernie Garcia.

Producer Regis is not only generous with stories, all engaging and told animatedly; she is also big-hearted enough to agree to donate part of the proceeds of the movie to charity.

"Tatlong Bibe" opened in theaters last March 1.
