Due to her senility, retired teacher Mila, finds it hard to connect with her grandson, Rafael.

Her condition brings a strain in their relationship. One misunderstanding leads to another that causes the former model teacher to run away from home.

Mila finds solace in the company of neighbors and friends.

While looking for his grandmother, Rafael soon realizes how great and ideal his Lola is as a person and as a teacher based on the accounts and testimonies of her former students and by the people whose lives she has touched in the exercise of her profession.
