DR. SALUSTIANO T. JIMENEZ, CESO VI
Schools Division Superintendent
Division of Negros Oriental

Dear Dr. Jimenez ,

A grace-filled day to you !

St. Louis School of Don Bosco inc. jubilates in its 50th founding anniversary celebration as an institution in Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental with its culmination on January 2018. Anchored on the theme : SLSDB @ 50 : "Golden Memories, Golden Moments, Golden Mission", the year-long festivity embarks on various authentic activities for the entire Educative Pastoral Community. It ultimately aims to strengthen their faith, character and values needed to face the challenges of today.

In this light, the Guidance Office with the Student Services and Affairs Office are spearheading a one-day Parenting Symposia which draws emphasis on its title : "We are Family : Embracing Individual Worth and Uniqueness of the Millenials". This is scheduled on September 23, 2017 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Negros Oriental Convention Center (NOCC).

We strongly believe that with your support and active involvement on this undertaking, we can bring light and genuine concern for the youth of today in understanding their individualities and concerns so that proper intervention primarily from the family and school can be given. It is our humble request for official dissemination from your office to enjoin the school heads, guidance counselors, and Values Education teachers of the Basic Education department of the respective public and private schools of the province for this laudable undertaking. A minimal registration of P300.00 per person would cover their lunch, snacks, seminar kit and certificate of participation.

Please don't hesitate to contact us for your inquiries. You may call our Central Office on this number (035) 422 – 2712/ 225 – 0384 (local 104) or Mme. Mimi Vintola (09272264552).

We look forward to a fruitful outcome on this endeavor. God bless !

In Don Bosco,

BRO. GEORGE CELIS, SDB
Student Services and Affairs Officer
